How long will it take for my purchase to ship?

Every single order purchased is made to order. This means your shipment can be expected to be delivered to you in 1–2 weeks for apparel; 2–6 weeks for delivery of all home décor pieces. The wide variance in shipment delivery is due to each piece having to be made again and again. On a good note, this ensures that each item is inspected and protected every single time with fresh production as you order.
